OUTLINES.

The situation in Morocco is said to be more alarming on the coast and in the interior; a Moroccan official and a Musselman priest are openly preaching a holy war, and already many Jews and foreigners have been murdered; the shells from the warships wrought ruin in the Mooish quarter and the streets are full of dead; pillage and murder are rampant, and fighting continues——The Democratic executive committee of Mississippi yesterday declared John Sharp Williams the choice for United States Senator by a majority of 648 over Governor Vardaman; the Governor yields gracefully but claims that a majority of the people of Mississippi stand for the principles which he advocates——Early yesterday morning three robbers made an attempt to rob the Farmers and Merchants' bank at Strongsville, O., but were driven off, two escaping after abandoning a companion who was fatally shot——At Hillsboro, Ills,' yesterday whites and negroes engaged in a riot and the negroes were driven from town——At Roanoke, Va., yesterday, in a fit of jealousy, T. J. Wingfield shot his wife dead and cut his throat——The skeleton of W. J. Barnes, a mine man who was murdered near Telluride, Col., in June, 1901, has been found where Steve Adams said the murdered man had been buried——The controversy between Alabama and the railroads has been settled with concessions by the railroads pending court decisions affecting State railroad legislation——At Edwood, Pa., two masked men bound and gagged the railroad agent and got away with $200——The King of Siam now in Berlin continues to amuse the people and enrich the dealers by his extravagant purchases of gems and jewelery, having laid in a supply costing $2,000,000——The central revolutionary laboratory for manufacturing bombs of a new pattern was raided in Moscow yesterday and 20 males and females captured——New York markets: Money on call steady 3 1-4 to 5 per cent., ruling rate 4 1-2, closing bid 3, offered at 3 1-2; spot cotton 10 points higher closing quiet at 13.30; flour quiet, steady; wheat steady, No. 2 red 93 3-4 elevator; corn firm, No. 2, 62 elevator; oats firm, mixed 55; turpentine firm; rosin quiet.

Many people don't know the difference between notoriety and reputation.

"Can women be angels?" inquires the Charleston News and Courier. They can make men think so, which is equally as good to serve their purposes.

It looks bad to be attacking the reputation of Rameses II, inasmuch as he is a fossil or mummy and cannot defend himself any more than a mollycoddle can.

A man has been arrested in Washington for working on Sunday. It is safe to say that the same man would be arrested if he did not work on Monday and the other five days of the week.

A contemporary is astonished that President Roosevelt has changed some of his political views. No one should be surprised when it is considered that the President always operated with an alternating current.

"How can a woman live to reach the age of 100 years?" inquires a woman writer.. If any woman ever reached that age nobody would know it, for she wouldn't even tell it to the marines.

A man informs the Newbern Sun that it was mistaken in saying that his son used an oar to frail an antagonist in a fight. The weapon used was only a barrel stave. We can see the distinction but very little difference.

Some magazine writer is assaulting the memory and reputation of Rameses II, claiming that the ancient Egyptian monarch was a fraud and didn't have as much power as the world has thought he had. Oh, well, perhaps his private secretary did things and was content to let it pass for Rameses' doings.

When Georgia Day was celebrated at the Jamestown Exposition a considerable quantity of champagne was guzzled at the Georgia Building. Now Governor Hoke Smith refuses to approve the wine bill and just about the same time be called upon to sign a prohibition bill for the entire State of Georga.

In view of the fact that Governor Smith has signed the prohibition bill for the entire State of Georgia, the Americus (Ga.) Times-Record takes comfort in the thought that he can "yet become intoxicated by the beauty of the Georgia girls." Editors who get off on that subject will hardly have a chance for sober reflections.

THE WRECK INQUIRY

Coroners Separks Will Begin Investigation of Auburn Crash on Southern Saturday.

FREIGHT RATE CONFERENCE

It May Be Postponed—Southern Ready With Its Passenger Tariffs. Dr. Rudy Comes to the A. & M. College——Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 8.—County Coroner Separks has set next Saturday, August 10th, as the day for the taking of testimony as to any criminal negligence in the matter of the wreck on the Southern Railway at Auburn, N. C., night before last. He issued subpoenas today for a great number of witnesses, including Engineer Will Rippey and Conductor C. M. Oakey, of the passenger train; T. S. Neal, Spencer; J. C. McAdams, Greensboro; the two flagmen on the trains; Road Master C. W. Anderson, of Durham, the train dispatcher at Durham; the operator at Raleigh, the agent at Auburn, Robert Wells, the newsboy on the train; Baggage Master Zack Hamilton, of Greensboro, and the agent at Clayton, N. C.

While the conductor and engineer on the passenger train admit that they overlooked orders to meet the other train at Auburn, the State will endeavor to show that probably the Southern officials themselves were criminally negligent for the reason that the "middle system" of signals should have been used at Auburn. Then the meeting orders would have been signalled by a red light at Auburn, whereas it is unauthoritatively stated that the white light was shown and that the trainmen thought they had a clear track. The coroner's jury has already visited the scene of the wreck and viewed the body of Fireman Bethel, one of the three killed in the smash. The body of the fireman was the only one recovered from the burned wreckage.

While tomorrow is the date set for the conference between Governor Glenn, the Corporation Commission and the traffic managers of the railroads with reference to discriminations that are complained of in favor of Virginia cities and against North Carolina points in freight rates from Cincinnati and other points north and west, there is a strong probability now that it will not take place, and the hearing in the same matter as to the discrimination by the Norfolk & Western against Winston-Salem, and Durham will not take place for the reason that the traffic manager of the N. & W. will not be on hand. It is known that he has intimated to the Corporation Commission that he feels that his road is unjustly singled out in this matter and that he cannot be offically summoned before the commission, being in another State. His appearance must be voluntary. It is also known that he has written Governor Glenn in reply to the recent open letter of the Governor to traffic managers, that in the absence of any specific charge, it would be impossible for him to meet with him and the Commission with any degree of satisfaction to either side wthout specific charges being set out. Asked about the probability of the hearing the statement was made at the office of the Commission that the time was set and the hearing would be had if the railroad representatives put in appearance.

A long distance telephone message this evening to the Corporation Commission from Traffic Manager Davant, of the Norfolk & Western, was to the effect that he cannot possibly be here tomorrow, either for the hearing the Commission had set for the case against the Norfolk & Western by the State Merchant's Association or the general hearing projected by Governor Glenn for the traffic managers of all railroads in the State regarding the elimination of alleged discrimination against the North Carolina points compared with Virginia cities in freight rates.

The Governor notified the Commission this evening that he expects practically all traffic managers here and a delegation from a number of towns; that the conference will certainly take place at 11 o'clock and will be open for the public.

There was a "hot time" in the office of the register of deeds today for a little while on account of the sale of a license for the marriage of Ormond C. Lisles and Miss Hortense Foushee, both of Jonesboro, Tuesday. The father of the bride arrived here and declared that somebody should suffer for it as the girl is only 15. The license had been issued with 18 years as her age. This was sworn to by the groom himself, who procured the license. So far as could be ascertained here today the couple has not been married yet, as there has been no return of the certificate by the minister or magistrate. The girl left Raleigh yesterday afternoon, after a visit to friends. The irate parent returned to Jonesboro on an afternoon train.

The Southern Railway Company has filed with the Corporation Commission the complete schedule of passenger fares between all stations in North Carolina,based on the 2 1-4 cent rate, which went into effect yesterday. There was surprised comment on the remarkably prompt work of the Southern in getting out this schedule so soon after the agreement to put the new rates on, but it develops that the Southern really had this schedule ready at the same time that it prepared the rebate coupons that were issued beginning July 1, to be used under the Federal Court restraining order. The Southern was ready for either alternative at that time, either to maintain the old rate with the coupon, if Judge Pritchard continued the injunction to the hearing, or to put on the 2 1-4-cent rate if he should dismiss the injunction.

ATTENDANCE VERY SLIM

Farmers' Institute Here Yesterday Under Auspices of State Department of Agriculture—Interest Absorbed.

The firemen's tournament yesterday absorbed all the interest that should and would have been taken in the Farmers' Institute, which was held in the Court House under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture. The attendance was very slim and on this account only a morning session was held. Those who eschewed the pleasures of the race course, although few, were very attentive and heard some profitable and interesting addresses in connection with the institute. All the party were here but sufficient interest, with the intensely warm weather, could not be had and the afternoon session which it was proposed to devote to women,was dispensed with. This was also true of the illustrated lecture which had been appointed for the night at the Court House by Dr. F. L. Stevens, of the A. & M. College. These illustrated lectures are being given all over the country and are bringing out most favorable comment. The subject is "Modern Agriculture and its Opportunities," treating of an illustrating agriculture as practised in the most progressive parts of the country, recent improvements in agricultural practises, the methods employed in improving cotton and corn, cross breeding plants, repressing diseases, soil improvement, etc.

The programme announced for the institute yesterday, a part of which was carried out, was as follows:

"Commercial Fertilizers and Their Use"—T. E. Browne, Hertford county.

"Plant Diseases and Spraying"—Dr. F. L. Stevens, North Carolina College of Agriculture.

"Soil Improvement"—Dr. W. J. McLendon, Anson county.

"Peanut Culture"—T. E. Browne.

"Foods and Cooking"—Miss Mae Card, North Carolina Department of Agriculture.

"Co-operation of Home and School"—Mrs. F. L. Stevens, Raleigh.

"Home Nursing"—Miss Card.

"Beautifying the Farm Home"—Mrs. Stevens.

LAD PAINFULLY INJURED.

Collided With Street Car at Front and Orange Streets Yesterday.

John M. Watson, 13 years old, a son of Dr. Watson, of Southport, was painfully injured yesterday morning about 8 o'clock by colliding with a street car on his bicycle at Front and Orange streets. The car was No. 8, bound to Front and Princess streets, in charge of Motorman Pete Merritt, and the boy was coming down Orange street at a pretty little clip. He either didn't see the car or was unable to check his speed, for he dashed broadside into the car and was thrown violently to the ground, remaining unconscious for some time. He was taken into Hardin's Palace Pharmacy, where it was found that his right forearn was broken and that he had suffered a severe scalp wound, besides several contusions about the body. Dr. John B. Cranmer attended the injured boy, and he was taken to No. 519 South Front street, where he is visiting.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Several Cases of More or Less Interest Yesterday at Noon.

The most interesting case before the Mayor yesterday was that of the visiting fireman, J. B. Watson, charged with disorderly conduct in too strongly refuting the charge of one of the local firemen that he had turned in a false fire alarm for the purpose of seeing the Wilmington Department turn out Tuesday night. The Mayor realized that the boys were simply out for a good time and at his suggestion, young Mr. Watson apologized to his comrade of the Wilmington company and the case was dismissed.

Several other cases yesterday were of the usual order and the defendants were let off with the costs or otherwise disposed of.

Colored Organization Here.

The Royal Lady Knights of King David, of North Carolina, a colored organization, is holding grand sittings here this week at Love and Charity Hall, Seventh between Nun and Church streets. Last night a banquet was given in Ruth Hall complimentary to the visitors, included in the number being among the most prominent colored people in the State.

SECOND DAY EVENTS

Ra'eigh Lowered World's Record in Hook and Ladder Contest in Tournament Yesterday.

THE REEL RACES EXCITING

Salem First in Hand Events and Southside of Salisbury Takes First Money in Grab Races. Statesville Gets Cup.

Under a blazing sun, with the mercury in the official glass pulsating between 92 and 94 degrees, the second day's events in the State and Inter-State tournament under the auspices of the North Carolina Firemen's Association were pulled off yesterday afternoon on the course extending north from Bladen on Fifth street. In spite of the intense heat, there was a refreshing breeze from the southwest and the various events moved along moore smoothly and with a greater degree of satisfaction than those of the first day.. The hand and grab reel races were scheduled to take place during the morning but before the regular schedule of the day the Asheville hook and ladder team was making a trial run over the course and ran over the hydrant, breaking it off near the ground. This necessitated the postponement of the races until the early afternoon. The crowd yesterday was not so large as on the opening day but those who were in the grand stand or crowded the lines saw the events to much greater advantage and with more comfort.

The most exciting event yesterday was the hook and ladder contest in which the Walter R. Womble Hook and Ladder Company, of Raleigh, broke the world's record established by the same company at Asheville last year, winning over its competitors Asheville No. 1, by five seconds and lowering the world's record by two-fifths of a second. The race took place at 5 o'clock yesterday and the work of the Raleigh team was the finest ever witnessed on any track. In 42 seconds the company ran 300 yards, took off a 30 foot ladder and sent a man to the top of it, replacing the ladder on the truck in exactly 42 seconds. The world's record of the Womble Company at Asheville last year was 42 2-5 seconds. The ladderman from the Raleigh team was nearly to the top rung by the time his comrades had it up and he had scarcely started to the ground again before they were restoring the apparatus to the truck.

There were seven entries each for the hand and grab reel races. In the hand reel contest Salem took first prize, time 26 3-5 seconds; Southside of Salisbury, second money, time 27-3-5, and Morganton third honors, time 28 4-5 seconds. Other records were: Independents of Monroe, 36 1-5 seconds; Graham, 31 seconds; Chapel Hill, 29 seconds; Monroe No. 1, 31 4-5 seconds. The Monroe Independents unfortunately had to make a second trial the electric gong appliance having failed to work on the first start through no fault of their own.

In the grab reel races Graham failed to make a connection and Monroe No. 1 failed on a team start. Southside of Salisbury won first prize, time 19 seconds; Salem, second honors, 19 4-5 seconds, and Independents of Monroe, third money, time 22 seconds. Other records were Chapel Hill 24 4-5 seconds; Morganton, 23 1-2 seconds.

Chapel Hill had the misfortune to be handicapped by the injury of two of its men in the hand reel races. A dog ran across the course and threw Lonnie Temple with the result that the reel passed over him, making a bad contusion of the shoulder, elbow knee and forearm. He is not seriously hurt and is being given medical attention by Dr. Thomas at his hotel. Wade Temple, a brother of the injured man on the team, was also thrown by the accident, but although incapacited for the race, he was able to be up after his experience.

After all the contests were over yesterday afternoon Hose Wagon Company No. 3, of the Wilmington Department, with its 5,000 pound machine made an exhibition run over the course that elicited the admiration of the hundreds who were in the grandstand and along the ropes. The wagon covered the distance to the hydrant in 18 seconds and made it to the end of the course in 22 seconds. The time was regarded as phenomenal with the heavy wagon and the fact that there have been, of course, no practices except in the regular service of the city. This afternoon an exhibition of the Wilmington Chemical will be given for the benefit of visiting firemen. This will take place between some of the Inter-State events and will be on the regular course with an actual fire of excelsior or other material.

The Events of Today.

Today will be Inter-State day and there will be all the events that have taken place the two days previous with the exception of the hook and ladder contests. It will be the most interesting day of the tournament and a very large crowd is expected. The Rome, Ga., hose reel teams are here and will participate in these contests. The hand reel races will begin at 9 o'clock this morning and the grab reel contests will take place at 11 A. M. At 2:30 P. M. the horse hose wagon races will be run and there will be a number of entries of State companies but none from out of the State. Another team to participate in the hand and grab reel races will be the Florence, S. C., department. They arrived yesterday and are confident of winning at least some of the events. There will also be a foot race during the day between two members of the Georgia team, Messrs. C. C. Wood and G. C. Byars. The runners will enter for a 100 yard dash. They ran last year at Asheville and the event was one of the most interesting of the meet there.

The prizes for the Inter-State events are as follows: Hand Reel Races, $125, $50 and $50 respectively. Grab Reel Races, $100 and $50 respectively. Horse Hose Wagons, $150, $75 and $25 respectively.

The judges of the hook and ladder races yesterday were Messrs. L. H. Lumsden and J. W. Thurmond; for the real races, Messrs. J. D. Barnes, F C. Meinung, Claude Wickers and R. F. Hill. The time keepers for both events were Messrs. F. T. Mills, Geo. Hardin and R. C. Taylor.

Statesville Wins Cup.

The Executive Committee of the State Firemen's Association to which was referred the matter of awarding the handsome silver loving cup presented by the Greensboro underwriters at the last annual meeting of the Association to be given to the department making the greatest progress during the year 1906, met yesterday and considered all the claims that were presented for the trophy. It was decided that the cup should go to one of three departments, viz: Statesville, High Point and Oxford. Upon a vote being taken, Statesville received two and High Point and Oxford, one each. No department having received a majority, a second ballot was taken resulting as follows: Statesville, two. High Point, one. Statesville having received a majority of the votes, the cup will be presented to the department that city. The pleasant formality of presenting the trophy will take place some time today by President James D. McNeill.

The Raleigh Contest.

Inasmuch as there was some misunderstanding as to the action of the Executive Committee upon the charge preferred against a member of the Rescue Company, of Raleigh, the decision of the committee is here given in full:

"At a meeting of the Executive Committee, after having carefully considered all the evidence in the case of Durham Fire Department against Rescue Company, of Raleigh, we find that all the evidence shows that Mr. Harris, of the Rescue Company, did at the Asheville tournament, without any authority for his action, interfere with the hose of the Durham company and by so doing, did a thing which he ought not to have done and for which he deserves censure. We do not think that the Rescue company of Raleigh should be held accountable for the unwarranted action of one of its young members, but we do think and agree that the individual should be censured and punished in order that an example should be made of this case to prevent similar occurrences again. We are satisfied that the action of Mr. Harris was simply due to youthful indiscretion and was not prompted by malice or a desire and intention to defraud or injure the competing company. At the same time we deem it best in the interest

TRUE BILLS FOR PEONAGE

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 8.—A true bill for peonage against E. A. Kline, a construction contractor on the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad, was found today by the grand jury in the United States district court at Beaufort. The bill contains ninety-six counts. When the finding was announced the court took a recess to give counsel for the defense opportunity to examine the bill. This afternoon a jury was selected and District Attorney Skinner began reading the bill. After he had read for more than an hour, counsel for the defense suggested that further reading might be dispensed with. The waiver was accepted and thereupon court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Chairman J. William Bailey, of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, announces the appointment of delegates to the National Anti-Saloon League at the Jamestown Exposition, September 16th to 19th. They are Heriot Clarkson, Charlotte; H. N. Blair, Greensboro; C. W. Blanchard, Raleigh; R. L. Davis, Warren Plains; F. S. Blair, Guilford Colege; alternates, J. A. Oates, Fayetteville; T. N. Ivey, Raleigh; J. A. Atkinson, Elon College; J. H. Tucker, Asheville, and Rev. Fred D. Hale, Wilmington.

The new North Carolina passenger rate law which has been the cause of such interesting legal developments during the last few weeks, went into effect one minute after midnight this morning on the Southern and Atlantic Coast Line Railways according to the recent compromise agreement with the State through Governor Glenn.

GUN CLUB TOURNEY

Thirty Entries For Match Opened Yesterday Under Auspices of The Local Club.

EVENTS NOT FINISHED

Professionals and Crack North Carolina Shots Made Fine Scores at Traps—Events Will Be Concluded With Two Special.

The events of the first day in the State tournament being held here under the auspices of the Wilmington Gun Club were not finished yesterday the men at the traps having been forced to abandon the targets after the close of the ninth event yesterday evening on account of darkness. However, the first day of the tournament was a success in every respect and the events will be concluded today. The men were late in arriving yesterday morning and this accounts for their being unable to finish. The day's events were begun at 10:30 o'clock and from then until nightfall there was a constant banging in the eastern section of the city.

There are a number of visitors here for the meet including Hawkins, Storr and Anthony, experts, and Messrs. Simms, Walls, Crayton, Sawyer, Bates, Todd, McPhee, Harris, Thurman and Crawford, crack shots of the State outside of Wilmington. Hawkins led the professionals in the first events of the day breaking 18 in the first three events and 20 in the fourth. Dr. Johnson also did splendid shooting, breaking 20 straights in the first two and 18 and 19 in the third and fourth turns, respectively. Crayton, of Charlotte, also did excellent work breaking 19 in the first event, 20 in the second and third and 19 in the fourth. Stokley broke 18, 19, 20 and 18 respectively in the first four turns at the range.

Several of the local men made some good scores and captured a part of the prize money offered during the day. This consisted of the regular pool and $10 added in each event. Boushee, Holmes, Penny, Littig and Harriss were among the leaders of the Wilmington men.

It was impossible to shoot for the handsome vase offered by the Hunter Arms Company yesterday, but this event will probably take place today. The shoot for the Ithaca gun will also be pulled off today if time will permit.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY

Latest Edition of Valuable Work by Hill Directory Company.

New and decidedly attractive volumes of the new city directory for Wilmington, published by the Hill Directory Company, of Richmond, Va., are now being distributed to subscribers in the city and orders for additional copies are being taken. The names in the book show that Wilmington has a population of 35,000 taking the usual basis of calculating these things as adopted by all directory people. The price of the book is only $3 and no office or place of business in the city is complete without one of them. The directory is, of course, much larger than previous editions, the binding is far superior, a better article of paper is used for the printed page and the typographical appearance is greatly improved upon. In addition to the names of all residents, firms and corporations in the city, the book is full of much other valuable information besides containing the advertisments of many progressive Wilmington firms. The book should have a large circulation for the Hill Directory Company has certainly done itself credit with the new book.

OUR MANUFACTURED EXPORTS.

It is gratifying to note that there has been a steady increase in the export of our manufactured products to foreign countries. Heretofore they have taken our raw material, and in many instances manufactured it and returned it to us as manufactured products, but we are now making progress in sending abroad our manufactured products instead of our raw material. When it is remembered, however, that the exports from the United States are $1,854,553,956 and that only about four per cent. are finished and partly finished products, it will be seen that we yet have a lot to do to make our manufactured exports exceed the exports of raw materials.

The Bureau of Statistics sends out a bulletin of our exports of manufactures for the last fiscal year, which shows that out of our total exports to foreign countries of $1,854,553,956 in value, $740,314,557 consisted of manufactured articles, of which $480,000,000, or nearly two-thirds, were finished products ready for consumption. Nearly 40 per cent. or, to be exact, 39.92 per cent., therefore, of our exports were manufactures, over one-third of that consisting of articles for use in further processes of manufacturing, such as pig iron and steel ingots, blooms and billets, copper pigs, ingots and bars, leather in different forms, lumber, etc. Of the finished articles some are natural products put through a simple process of refining, or other preparation for the market, such as mineral oil and naval stores, which are important items.

The first place is taken by iron and steel, the value of which was $181,530,871, an increase of about $20,000,000 over the previous year and above a total of $57,497,872 in 1897, then years ago. About 85 per cent of these are rated as finished products, which include steel rails, structural forms and builders' hardware, as well as machinery. Agricultural implements and scientific instruments, in which iron, steel and other metals are more or less used, are separately classed. Copper holds second place with a value of $88,791,225, but the bulk of this goes out in the partly manufactured form merely smelted and refined from the ore. The increase in ten years is from $31,621,125. Manufactures of wood come third with a value of $79,704,395, compared with $35,679,694 in 1897; mineral oil fourth, valued at $78,228,819, against $56,463,185 in 1897, and leather and its manufactures fifth at $45,476,960, an increase from $19,161,446 ten years ago.

It looks reasonable that manufactured cottons ought to take first place if not the next place, but as a matter of fact while raw cotton constitutes a big part of America's exports, finished cotton products are away down in the list. Commenting upon the statistics referred to in the above, the New York Journal of Commerce says:

"These are manufactures in which we have or ought to have, a distinct advantage in the possession of great stores of raw material. Of the raw material of leather we do not produce enough, and but for the duty on hides our production and export might be largely increased. In cotton manufactures we have the greatest advantage of all so far as raw materials are concerned, but the value of the goods exported was only $32,305,412 in the last fiscal year, and the increase was only from $21,037,678 in 1897. This is partly due to tariff duties on other materials used an on machinery which stand in the way of the manufacture of finer grades of goods. We also have an advantage in making agricultural implements, not only in the possession of the materials used, but in the large demand of our own agricultural industry, and also in the production of naval stores, consisting of rosin, tar, turpentine and pitch. In the export of the former there was an increase from $5,240,686 in 1896-7, to $26,936,456 in the last fisecal year, and in the latter an increase from $9,214,958 to $21,686,752.

"If we reckon up these eight articles, or groups of articles, in which the United States has special advantages for production, we shall find that they furnished $554,660,890 of the total of $740,314,557 of our manufactured exports, or more than two-thirds of the whole. In textile manufactures the showing is a poor one. Besides the $32,305,412 of cotton goods, there was $8,308,112 of other vegetable fibres and $2,239,106 of wool. But for the duty on raw wool our manufactures in that line might be greatly increased, and there is no reason why we should not export much more of the finished articles to the countries of North and South America. Of course the large demand of our own people accounts in some measure for the meagre export of textiles. Their manufacture ranks third in the industries of the country, in the capital employed and the annual value of the product. A census buletin recently issued shows the value of the output in 1905 to have been $1,215,000,000, and the capital invested $7,343,324,605. This includes cotton and woolen fabrics, hosiery and knit goods, silk products and those of other fibres, as flax, hemp and jute. The output of all these industries exceeded by $300,000,000 in value that or iron and steel products."

IMPRESSED WITH ITALIAN LABOR.

Editor Clarence H. Poe, of the Progressive Farmer, publisehd at Raleigh, has been on a tour of several Southern States for the purpose of gathering data on the South's industrial progress, to be used in the preparation of a series of magazine and newspaper articles on the subject. Mr. Poe on Wednesday returned to Raleigh from a trip of five weeks, mostly spent in South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama and other States, and of his tour the Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday says:

"Mr. Poe, in speaking of his trip, said yesterday that he was much impressed with the successful use of Italian labor on the Mississippi cotton farms. He said he saw two fields of cotton, with only a road separating them, and that the cotton in one cultivated by negro labor was knee high while in that cultivated by Italian labor the cotton was waist high. He says the Italians of the South are not the same class as the dagos of the North, they look like another race."

Mr. Poe is a well equipped newspaper man, is a practical observer, and will, no doubt, give us some readable articles on what he saw of the new labor conditions in the South. What he says can be depended upon from any point of view.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Statesmanship has come to low ebb in America, when a man can be nominated for office just because he is notorious.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

—It seems that the Southern Railway's recently revoked Alabama license only cost $10. A little thing to be at the root of so much trouble.—Charlotte Observer.

—All Republicans are not grafters, but about all the grafters are Republicans, who have doubtless been induced to become such by the corrupting systems of protective tariffs and subsidies.—Durnam Sun.

—Being a candidate is not all a bed of roses. Republican newspapers are now demanding that Secretary Taft resign from the cabinet before taking any more active part in the contest for the Presidential nomination.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

—The Wilmington Star and The News and Observer are not only together in preaching pure Democracy, but both get red-headed when occasion calls for fire-works. Yesterday's Star printed in red ink a beautiful eagle, with the words "A Wilmington Welcome to Firemen and Visitors." A Wilmington welcome means a hearty, cordial, feel-at-home sort of time, and the firemen are to be envied.—Raleigh News and Observer.

There is a savings bank in Cleveland, O., which is putting out five dollar certificates of deposit which draw interest at 4 per cent. These interest-bearing certificates are dated and there is a place on the back for the bank to mark to what date the interest has been paid. It transpires that these deposit certificates are very attracive and have passed from one person to another almost like money. They are made payable to bearer, not to order. Some of the other banks in Cleveland have complained to Washington that these certificates of deposit are being used as currency, but the Comptroller has decided that they are not currency. This movement is indicative that the people of Cleveland are very much interested in saving money and the facility with which these certificates of deposit may be sold from one person to another or used in payment of any deubt has naturally stimulated the savings feature of this bank. A better understanding of the value of savings or of putting money in a form in which it can be used instead of wasting it or letting it lie idle is growing all over the United States.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Willie—My pop kin lick your pop. Tommy—That's nothing'; so can maw.—Chicago News.

—Captain—Please, sir, your wife has fallen overboard. Owner—Confound it! Another of those sinking spells of hers!—Harper's Keekly.

—Shea—How long have you been sick? Ryan—Five days. Shea—Glory be! And why don't ye git a doctor? Ryan—Shure, I got to go to wur-ruk Monday marnin'.—Puck.

—"I was so mixed when I met you and Jones together that I couldn't tell you apart—that is, at first." "How did you at last?" "Jones offered me a cigar."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"Mamma, why not say my prayers in the morning instead of at night?" "Why so?" "There are only burglars and fire at night, but in the daytime I may be run over at any moment."—Life.

—Dobbie—Pop, what are trading stamps? "Trading stamps, son, are inducements to buy something you don't want in order to acquire something you can get along without."—Puck.

—Patience—She's engaged to a military man. Patrice—Is that so? "Yes, a captain." "Regular army?" "Of course! You didn't think he was in the Salvation Army, did you?"—Yonkers Statesman.

—Gunner—One of the famous old-time pitchers is now pushing a cart and buying up junk. He used to be called The Iron Man. Guyer—Hm! I suppose now he is called the Old Iron Man.—Chicago News.

His Yankee Thrift.

A Massachusetts man tells a story of "Old John" Langley, a veteran Worcester horseman, that is illustrative of Yankee astuteness.

One day Langley sought his tailor and in somewhat profane terms demanded "a pair of breeches of the best stuff in the shop." Of the many samples submitted Old John hit upon a beautiful silky broadcloth, the most costly piece of goods the tailor had, and, although this was most unsuitable for the purpose, Langley insisted that it was just what he wanted. Furthermore, he declared that he desired it "made up wrong side out."

The tailor expostulated in vain, but the trousers were made as per specifications and delivered.

A day or so thereafter a friend, calling on Langley, remarked on the trousers in uncomplimentary language. Langley said he was satisfied. More guying resulted in an offer from Old John to bet $50 that the cloth cost more per yard than that in his friend's trousers. The bet was taken and the tailor was to decide it. He named the price. The friend would not believe that the rough goods could be so costly until he was shown the shiny silky side. Then he paid, as other men had on similar bets, so that Old John reaped quite a harvest on his original idea. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Better No Food Than No Opera.

The creole would rather do without a few meals than miss a good opera with a fine cast, nor does this admirable spirit merely apply to the middle classes. Many a charming little creole lady who might point to a Marigny on her escutcheon would not hesitate if hard pressed to do her own housework in order to be able to blossom out at night in her proper place, radiant and exquisite, in a loge grille at the opera. It matters little in New Orleans to what unfortunate straits adversity may have driven a lady, even though she may do typewriting for people whom she meets socially, there are enough noble minded people of the ancien regime who will help her to forget the pinch of poverty and see that she receives the greatest consideration. This inbred chivalry is one of the most marked and endearing traits of the southern character, lending to the south an atmosphere free from our parasitical flunkyism over mere money or its insignia.—C. H. White in Harper's Magazine.

A Good Critic.

Sir Henry Irving, the English actor, once wanted a white horse to use in one of his scenes, but no white horse that was suitable could he get. At last a stage hand advised him to apply to a certain distinguished actor manager, who, he said, had such a horse. Sir Henry visited the owner, inspected the horse, and the bargain was concluded, but as an afterthought Sir Henry said he trusted the animal was not fractious.

"Not at all, Sir Henry, I assure you; an excellent horse in every way. Why, I rode him night after night, and all I had to complain of was that he would occasionally yawn when I was on the stage."

"Indeed," said Sir Henry. "A bit of a critic, then, evidently."

The Wind Month.

November was called by the ancient Saxons the wint monat, or wind month, on account of the gales then prevalent. It was also named the blot monat, or blood month, from the ancient practice of then slaughtering cattle for the winter provisions. It is said that the Roman senators wished to name the month after Tiberius, as months had already been named after Julius Caesar and Augustus, but the emperor, like Canute, felt that it was possible to have too much flattery and refused, remarking dryly, "What will you do, conscript fathers, if you have thirteen Cæsars?"

The Uncharitable Game!

Golf is considered bad for the temper, but even on a golf course one will not see anything approaching the rudeness that is to be seen on the croquet ground. If a golfer "foozles" a ball or gets "bunkered" he may throw his club about and use a little bad language, but he will not accuse the opponent of cheating and refuse to speak to the unfortunate person for the rest of the day, which a croquet player frequently does.—C. B. Fry's Magazine.

Above His Income.

"So you have decided that Taliaferro cannot marry your daughter."

"Most assuredly not; wouldn't have such a son-in-law."

"What's the trouble? Is he dissipated or profligate?"

"Everything. He has an edition de luxe opinion of himself, but is in reality only a paper backed copy."—New York Press.

The Lobster.

"Aw, g'on, Mike," said the British soldier, attempting to end the argument; you're a lobster."

"Ye flatter me," retorted Mike. "Shure, a lobster's a wise animal, fur green is the color fur him as long as he lives, an' he'll die before he puts on a red coat."—Catholic Standard and Times.

True, True.

Today is short. Yesterday has passed. Tomorrow may not come; hence you have no time to waste. If you contemplate doing something, better be at it.—Pittsburg News.

Anything That Came Handy.

Howell—How does that woman strike you? Powell—With any old thing. She's my wife.

AT MOORE'S CREEK GROUNDS.

Monument to Heroic Women to Be Unveiled on 15th of August.

A monument just erected to the heroic women who figured in that great battle will be unveiled on the Moore's Creek battleground on August 15th, and arrangements are being made to entertain a very large crowd on this occasion. Hon. Charles R. Thomas, of the Third District, will be one of the speakers. Dinner will be served on the grounds in the hospitable picnic style, and every housekeeper from far and near is expected to come and bring a basket. Currie is the nearest railroad station and the grounds may be conveniently reached from there. Any information regarding the celebration may be obtained by writing J. F. Moore, president, Currie, N. C., or E. E. Murphy, secretary, Atkinson, N. C.

The handsome monument arrived at Currie yesterday and will be put in place at the earliest possible time before the date of unveiling. The battle of Moore's Creek was not only the first victory gained for American independence in the Revolutionary War, but the first blood shed for the cause of freedom in North Carolina was shed there.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY MORNING

Remains of Late Miss Katheryn T. Hergenrother Laid to Rest.

In the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives impressive funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from St. Thomas' Catholic Church over the remains of the late Miss Katheryn T. Hergenrother, who passed away Wednesday afternoon. The service was by Rev. Father C. Dennen and a number of beautiful floral tributes were laid on the casket by loving hands. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery, the pall-bearers having been Messrs. Joseph Price, honorary; Dan Carroll, John Niggel, M. Seligman, Jas. J. Allen, Fred Westermann and Dr. T. B. Carroll, active.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Fire Department responded to a false alarm of fire at 1:20 o'clock this morning from Box 28, Fourth and Grace streets.

—The schooners Eliza A. Scribner, Capt. Dodd, and the schooner Edwina, Capt. McKeen, cleared yesterday for New York, with cargoes from the Cape Fear and Angola lumber mills, respectively. Both vessels are reported by C. D. Maffitt.

—The schooner A. & M. Carlisle, which has been in at Southport for harbor since August 3d, will probably proceed on her voyage from New York to Port Royal, S. C., today. She had been out 30 days and put in at Southport on account of stress of weather and being short of provisions.

—The Monroe Fire Department left on the 4 o'clock Seaboard train this morning for its home town. The reel team which won the grab race yesterday afternoon has been organibed little more than a month. The Monroe firemen have made an excellent impression at the tournament, and it was hoped they would remain for the inter-State events today.

—Last night either on the street or at the reception given the visiting firemen at the Howard Relief Club, a very highly prized watch charm bearing the monogram "R. F. H." was lost. The finder will confer a very great favor upon a guest of the city for the tournament by returning it to the assistant chief of the Kinston Fire Department, who will pay a reward, if necessary.

—There were reports in the city yesterday evening that there had been some trouble between the visiting firemen and the management of the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach. From all that could be learned, a Raleigh man was celebrating the triumph of his city in the hook and ladder contest by rolling a wheelbarrow back and forth in the lobby and finally wound up with it in the bar. He was ordered to take it out but would not do so and was assaulted by the bar tender. His face was beaten up to some extent, but the incident was of no serious consequence, from the best information obtainable.

MRS. MARY C. COSTIN DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Early Yesterday Morning.

Friends in this city and elsewhere will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Cornelia Costin, wife of Mr. Miles F. Costin, which occurred at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the family home in Wilmington, No. 1215 Market street. Mrs. Costin was 52 years of age and had been in poor health for some time. While her death was not unexpected, it came as a sad blow to the family and friends.

Mrs. Costin was a woman of strong Christian character, devoted to her family, her church and her friends. Her presence in the family circle and among her friends will be sadly missed.

Mrs. Costin is survived by her devoted husband and the following children: Mr. J. R. Costin, of Newbern; Mrs. J. E. Moore, of Watertown, Fla.; Mr. William H. Costin, of Watertown, Fla.; Mr. M. W. Costin and Misses Sallie and Janie Costin, all of this city. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. B. W. Watson, of Wilmington. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. The funeral will be conducted at 5 o'clock from the residence this afternoon and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

MARRIED LAST EVENING

Miss Mary Isabelle Sinclair, Bride of Mr. Richard Beasley.

A marriage of much interest to friends in Wilmington and elsewhere was that of Miss Mary Isabelle Sinclair, daughter of Mr. W. A. Sinclair, of Harnett township, and Mr. Richard F. Beasley, of Masonboro, which was impressively performed last night at 8 o'clock in the pastor's study of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., officiating. There were present to witness the ceremony only a few intimate friends of the young people, those who attended the bride being Miss Mildred Maunder and Miss Bessie Mills. After the ceremony the young people returned to the home of the bride in East Wilmington where an informal reception was given. Both are very popular in Wilmington and in the county and will receive the happiest congratulations of many upon their marriage.

Three Alarms Yesterday.

The Wilmington Fire Department responded to three alarms yesterday. The one at 9:35 A. M. from box 112 was on account of the burning of the roof of a house at 714 Red Cross street, occupied by William Daniels, colored. The damage was about $100 to dwelling and contents. The alarm at 3 P. M. from box 16 was on account of a trifling blaze at 707 North Third, occupied by Hannah Johnson, colored. The alarm at 7:20 last night was on account of a carriage of lightwood on fire at the Standard Turpentine Company's plant in the southern part of the city.

Signals for Tug Sea King.

Captain Edgar D. Williams has just completed the installation of two extra masts on the steam tug Sea King and she is now provided with a full signal code for communicating with vessels at sea. of the future harmony of the Association that Mr. Gordon Harris an individual be disbarred from participating in the 1907 tournament held in Wilmington.

"A. H. BOYDEN,
"R. C. TAYLOR,
"W. C. VonGLAHN,
"JAMES D. McNEILL,
"Committee."

Last night hundreds of firemen went to Carolina Beach on the steamer Wilmington and on the cars to Lumina. Another complimentary trip on the steamer Wilmington will be given tonight and the bowling tournament at Lumina will be concluded.

Notes of the Tournament.

The Star is requested to say by an outsider that the idea that seems to prevail that Newbern lost in the quick steaming and long distance contests Wednesday because of her over anxiety to win is all a mistake. It is stated upon authority that the cause of the accident to Newbern's steamer was that at the time the water was turned on, the engine had 50 pounds of steam, ten pounds more than was needed to send water out of the hose, and that the accident was due to the carelessness of some one in leaving the bleed valve open which should have been closed after cleaning and oiling.

Mr. W. T. Wicker, of the Darlington Department, arrived yesterday to attend the tournament. His city has sent no apparatus to take part in the Inter-State features but Mr. Wickers is here looking on and may enter the North Carolina tourney with a team next year.

There is to be a burlesque race some time during this afternoon for the amusement of spectators at the tournament. This will consist of a machine rigged up for a jackass record, a long eared animal having been spotted a day or two ago by a couple of gentlemen who will run him down the pike as a side line to the regular events.

A large number of visiting firemen and their friends were delightfully entertained last night at the Howard Relief Club, an old firemen's organization now given up to social pleasures The entertainment was in the form of a smoker and the members of the club proved themselves most excellent hosts upon this occasion. The evening spent with the Howard Reliefs will long be most pleasantly remembered by not a few of the visitiors to Wilmington this week.

Only three teams entered the bowling tournament at Lumina last night. These were Salem, Morganton and Hickory. The scores were as follows: Salem—Tesh 132, O. Peddicord 154, R. Peddicord 123, Jarvis 96. Morganton—Ross 112, Ward 95, Traywell 77, McGalliard 101. Hickory—Moser 129 Leach 165, Yoder 135, Sigmon 110.

The Monroe firemen here for the tournament were greatly exercised last night over a private telegram received by one of their number stating that their town had been visited by one of the worst fires in its history. So far as could be learned the story was all a hoax and was probably intended as a joke at the expense of the Monroe boys. Charlotte and Monroe both were asked for information, but nothing could be obtained.

The electric apparatus for starting the races is a clever contrivance of Superintendent of Alarm John T. Yates, of Wilmington. It greatly facilitates matters and has contributed no end to the success of the tournament.

FREIGHT RATE DECISION.

Ruling Concerning Refrigerator Shipments of Strawberries.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Aug. 7.—In a decision by the Inter-State Commerce Commission announced today, it was held that where carriers exacted from shippers a special higher rate than ordinary was charged, in consideration of an expedited service, the higher rate could not be charged unless the service contemplated actually was rendered.

The opinion was written by Commissioner Clerk and was in the case of the American Fruit Union, of Cincinnati, Ohio, against the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railway. After holding that the carrier is not entitled to exact the higher rate unless the special service is rendered, Commissioner Clark says:

"This principle is recognized in contracts between the Federal government and the railways for fast mail service and by the railways in connection with their excess fare limited passenger trains. In both instances carriers forfeit a part of the compensation if they fail to make the time agreed upon."

In this case defendants' rate on strawberries in carloads under refrigeration, from Chattanooga and Oakdale, Tenn., to Cincinnati, was found unreasonable and the rate of 27 cents per crate was ordered to be reduced to 22 cents per crate.

Reparation also was awarded to shippers injured by the failure of the defendant to supply the special service.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

SHORTHAND REPORTERS.

Convention at Asheville Closing Up Its Work.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 8.—Today's session of the Shorthand Reporters' National Convention was featured by active work for next year's meeting. The cities making bids are Milwaukee, Narragansett, Atlanta, Columbus, O., Colorado Springs, Niagara Falls, and Put-In-Bay.

Papers were read by Theodore C. Rose, of Elmira, N. Y.; George Farnell, of Providence, R. I.; K. C. Hill, Trenton, N. J., and A. E. Eve, of Asheville.

The delegates were given a banquet tonight.

Gladstone's Lack of Humor.

It was universally acknowledged that Mr. Gladstone's memory was prodigious, but there was a certain lord chief justice of England who thought the stateman's memory of his feats of memory more prodigious still. On one occasion after listening to what seemed to him a "tall story" of some happening of the great man's early years the lord chief justice determined to go him one better. So he said that he remembered when he was only six months old, and, lying in his cradle, he saw his nurse surreptitiously help herself to a glass of brandy and said to himself:

"As soon as I can speak shan't I tell my mother!"

"The thing is absolutely impossible," was Mr. Gladstone's comment in his gravest tone.

The lord chief justice said afterward that he had been beaten because he had reckoned on Mr. Gladstone having a gleam of humor.

"I was mistaken," he said sadly.

Mixed Metaphor.

Mr. Spurgeon was a keen collector of mixed metaphors, finding a rich field in the correspondence that daily overwhelmed him. Two or three are given in the Cornhill. A lady inclosing a small contribution for his schools wrote, "I hope this widow's mite may take root and spread its branches until it becomes a Hercules in your hands." The pulpit prayers of ambitious probationers added something to the great preacher's store. One prayed that "God's rod and staff may be ours while tossed on the sea of life, so that we may fight the good fight of faith and in the end soar to rest." Still another prayed, "Gird up the loins of our minds, that we may receive the latter rain." "As if we were barrels whose hoops were loose," was Mr. Spurgeon's laughing comment.—St. James' Gazette.

Hurrah.

"Hip, hip, hurrah!" is a modern phrase. The "hip" and the "hurrah" do not seem to have come together before the nineteenth century. In the eighteenth century hip amounted to just "hi," or "hello," while "hurrah" was then usually "hussa." It is like the Cossack "Ora!" but it is supposed to have been a German cry of the chase adapted by the German soldiers to war and borrowed from them by the English, perhaps first of all at the time of the Thirty Years' war. "Hurra!" is said to have been the battle cry of the Prussians in the war of liberation (1812-13). Still, the curious fact that seventeenth and eighteenth century writers call "Huzza!" a sailors' shout lends support to the conjecture that it may really have been the hoisting cry, "Hissa!"

Endorsed By the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by R. R. Bellamy's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fatherly Discipline.

She came into his study gently. "I hate to disturb you, dear." He looked up. "It is after 11, and Dick has not come home yet—and—it is the second time this week he has stayed out. I did not wish to speak to you—but—a boy of seventeen"—

She faltered. He was looking at her with a strange, fixed expression. "I understand. Leave him to me. I shall wait up until he comes in."

"Don't be harsh with him," she said pleadingly. "Oh, I am so sorry I told you! Remember, he has always been such a good boy"—

"My dear, you have nothing further to do with this. I must deal with my son in my own way. I request you not to interfere. You had better go quietly to your room. I ask you to do so. I want him to find me here when he sees fit to return to his home."

She retired, with her mother heart anxiously beating, and waited until the click of a latchkey sounded in the street door. She listened, trembling, ready to rush out, a penitent peacemaker. She heard:

"Dick, is that you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Is the dog in the hall?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, turn out the gas. Good night!"—Madeline Bridges in Woman's Home Companion.

Characteristic Songs.

"It may or may not be the case that a race's temperament can be judged from its folk songs," said a traveler on a transatlantic liner the other day, "but it is interesting to note the difference of subject matter in the songs of various peoples.

"The Irishman, for instance, seems to sing for the most part about his ladylove. Hardly any of his songs are not addressed to his 'Somebody Mavourneen.'

"The Scot, on the other hand, sings about his country and its history, as a rule. 'Scots Wha Hae,' 'Ye Banks and Braes o' Bonnie Doon,' 'Loch Lomond,' and so on, might be taken as examples.

"The Englishman, it is interesting to note, sings about himself all the time. His songs are about his own glory, his ships, his men, his power. He refers occasionally to old England, but only as a place he made famous by his own prowess. Unlike the Irish and the Scotch, he sings little of his women and his country's beauties."—New York Times.

Tricks of the Trade.

"This watch," said the apprentice, "runs too fast. I'll regulate it."

"Do nothing of the kind," said the jeweler.

"Why not?" the apprentice asked in surprise.

"Because," the other explained, "the owner teaches music."

"But hanged if I see"— began the puzzled apprentice.

"Listen," the jeweler interrupted. "When watches are left here, never regulate them unless there is a special order to do so. Some people—music teachers, for instance—want their watches to run a little fast. So do cabbies. So do fencing masters. Other people want their watches to run slow. Builders like slow running watches, and so do ministers, and so do men who play billiards by the hour."—Exchange.

The Forehead.

A receding brow, like a receding chin, shows a lack of will power and of a firm and quick intelligence. The forehead that has projecting "bumps" over the eyes indicates observation. A high, prominent, bulging brow does not contribute to the beauty of the face, but it shows both the absentmindedness and the keen intellect of the scholar. It is the forehead that looks straight, but which in reality slopes back a very little, with the eyebrows projecting and firmly marked, that is one of the most desirable. Its possessor will be tolerant, but firm, steady, intelligent and decisive.

A Stage Episode.

When Mrs. Bellamy was acting Alicia in "Jane Shore" the king was present among the audience. Apparently the play was not so potent as the wine his majesty had taken at dinner, for he fell asleep, greatly to Mrs. Bellamy's annoyance, for she drew near to his box and with a most violent exertion of voice which the part admitted of cried out, "Oh, thou false lord!" and woke the king, and thus, like Macbeth, she murdered sleep and revenged herself on his majesty.—From "Annals of Covent Garden Theater."

Willing to Help Along.

The cranky old bachelor was irritable. Calling the landlady, he said:

"Mrs. Hashley, who is it that keeps singing 'I Would Not Live Alway?'"

"That is the lady in the room across the hall, sir," answered the landlady.

"Well," continued the C. O. B., "kindly give her my compliments and tell her if she keeps that up much longer she can rest assured she won't."—Chicago News.

Character.

There is a tremendous power in character when added to ability. A great many youths think that ability is everything; that if a man has brain power he can accomplish most anything, but he is a lightweight man, no matter how able, if he does not add character to his ability.—Success Magazine.

Not Ahead.

"They say that Shifter is ten years ahead of his time."

"Well, it's not true. I'm his landlord, and I know he's just six months behind."

Bustling Mme. de Stael.

In my last letter I mentioned going to visit Mme. de Stael. She was just going out as I got to the door, and but for Mr. Rogers, who was coming out as I went in, I should not have gained admittance. There were many persons with her, and she was running about and talking as fast as possible. Her dress and manners are very extraordinary. The news of Lord Wellington's victory had just arrived, and she descanted upon it with much animation. I cannot better describe to you the bustle she makes than by saying that, leaving her, the streets of London seemed solitary, for as to noise and hurry and rapidity in the succession of events there is as much difference between her room and them as between them and the park at Bulstrode.—London Athenaeum.

The Peacock at Home.

The real home of peacocks or peafowls is in India. There they were and are hunted, and their flesh is used for food. As the birds live in the same region as the tiger, peacock hunting is a very dangerous sport. The long train of the peacock is not its tail, as many suppose, but is composed of feathers which grow out just above the tail and are called the tail coverts. Peacocks have been known for many hundred years. They are mentioned in the Bible. Job mentions them, and they are mentioned, too, in I Kings x. Hundreds of years ago in Rome many thousand peacocks were killed for the great feasts which the emperors made. The brains of the peacock were considered a great treat, and many had to be killed for a single feast.

Moscow's Old Drug Store.

The greatest drug store in the world will be found in one of the most backward countries of the world. It exists in Moscow and is over two centuries old. Its title is the Old Nikolska pharmacy, and since 1833 it has been in the family of the present proprietor. It is a building of imposing dimensions, with many departments, including one of professional education for the staff, which numbers 700 persons. They make up about 2,000 prescriptions a day, and so perfect is the organization that an error is seldom recorded.

A Good Guess of Long Ago.

During the American Revolution an English magazine published an estimate of the North American colonies. Placing the population then at 2,000,000 and assuming that it would double itself every twenty-five years, the writer estimated that in the year 1890 the number would have increased to 64,000,000. This may be taken as a most remarkable prophecy, inasmuch as the census of 1890 fixed the total population at 62,622,250.

Rough on the Doctor.

When a physician takes a vacation his medical friend who looks after his patients in his absence often resents being called the "assistant." The relieving doctor would prefer to be known as colleague or coadjutor or substitute. An old lady recently added a new synonym when she announced that she was being treated by her own physician's "accomplice."

Worse Still.

Irate Husband—I wish, madam, you would not interrupt me every time I try to say something! Do I ever break in when you are talking? His Wife—No, you wretch; you go to sleep!

Malicious.

Gladys—I refused Fred two weeks ago, and he has been drinking heavily since. Ethel—Isn't it about time he stopped celebrating?

It is estimated that £80,000,000 worth of British treasure lies sunk along the route from England to India.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

By virtue of the decree of the Superior Court of New Hanover County, made in the case of W. J. Brown against William McD. Brown and George H. SPIRITS TURPENTINE

Sampson Democrat: Mr. W. L. Spoon, of the government Bureau of Public Roads, and a road expert, spent a few days in and around Clinton last week; during which time he was instructing and advising with the Road Commission and our citizens generally on the subject of road building, its advantages, etc., to a country.

Newbern Sun, August 8: The election at Trenton Tuesday on the question of dispensary or prohibition resulted in a tie vote. Further information could not be gained last night. Of course this leaves the dispensary in operation there, and the question arises, will the two-year limit before another election can be held operate, or is there provision for such cases?

—Reidsville, August 7: The remains of T. N. Terry were brought here today for interment. It will be recalled that Mr. Terry was bitten by a tarantula in Arkansas some time ago. The bite affected his mind and a few weeks ago he was carried to the asylum. His condition gradually grew worse from the time he arrived at Morganton. The deceased was about 40 years old and is survived by his wife and two children.

—Newbern, August 7: Z. V. Taylor, agent of the Southern Express Company, met with a singular accident here today. He was seated on his wagon driving and when he hit his horse with the rein the animal jumped and kicked, striking Mr. Taylor on the right leg midway between the knee and ankle, making an ugly wound. Examination showed that the bone was shattered, some 20 pieces of bone being extracted. The injury is very severe.

—Lincoln News: Dr. W. C. Kiser was called upon for a most unusual operation a few days ago in which he extracted two dog ticks from the ear of Edna, the five-year old daughter of Mr. Eli Rhyne, of Reepsville. One of the ticks was about the size of a cow pea and the other not quite so large, and they were deeply imbedded in the ear near the drum where they had remained for eight weeks. A slight inflammation had caused deafness in the ear, and when the ticks were removed, with tweezers, a piece of skin 1-4 of an inch in diameter was torn away by the tight grip of the insects.

—Maxton, August 6: Mr. Henry H. McCallum, aged 69, died here this morning suddenly of heart failure, after an illness of several weeks. Prior to his last sickness he appeared hale and strong, save for an occasional attack of actute indigestion. The end came unexpectedly as the sick man was in the act of taking a drink of water and deceased was a member of the S. Leaneut family of Robeson county and yetimself a highly respected citizen with popular gentleman. During the latter part of his life he was a farmer and moved to Maxton several years ago and retired from business He slaves several sons and daughters, among them Mr. J. B. McCallum, H. S. McCallum and Mrs. C. J. Cottingham, all of this place.

—Salisbury, August 7: The mystery of the pest house murder last week in the country two miles from Salisbury is about to be cleared up by Coroner Rose Dorsett, who has played the detective cleverly. He will make no public announcement for reasons entirely sensible, but says from a number of people he has obtained such evidence as will warrant the taking in of a man not a stranger to Salisbury people. In the work he has been aided by Sheriff Krider, and they have done the detective's part as smartly as any officers could have done. They are certain that such a web of evidence, beginning from something almost entirely inconsequential, has been woven as will justify the arrest of the man under suspicion.

—Beaufort, August 6: Judge Purnell convened court at 10 oclock this morning and adjourned at 12, the only work being selecting a grand jury and delivering his charge. He began his charge by saying it is regretable that people have misunderstandings of United States courts and are antagonistic to them. They charge that United States courts are of foreign jurisdiction and for revenue regulation. This antagonism is kept alive by bobtail lawyers and interested editors. United States Courts have existed one hundred and twenty-five years, and with a single exception in this State have had North Carolina Judges and been officered by North Carolinians. Their business pertains to government affairs just like State courts pertain to State affairs. There is sometimes a cinflict between them, but never where the laws are properly administered.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 8.—The cotton market ruled higher today and closed very steady 13 to 15 points net advance. Sales for the day were estimated at 225,000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance of 14 to 20 points in response to much higher cables than due and continued dry hot weather in the western belt which caused active covering by yesterday's local sellers. At the advance there was considerable realizing and some selling for a turn and in the absence of bullish leadership or any improvement in the volume of outside demand prices eased off in spite of the official forecast calling for continued clear weather in Texas. Later the market steadied up again on covering. Trading was quite active during the first few minutes but the market was very quiet later in the day The decline during the middle session was promoted by some selling through Wall street houses. Private cables from Liverpool attributed the advance there to the crop damage reports from the southwest.

Receipts today 332 bales against 285 last week and 2,800 last year. For the week 12,000 bales against 9,732 last week and 32,200 last year. New Orleans receipts today 49 bales against 52 last year and Houston 52 against 2,434 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points higher; middling uplands 13.30; middling gulf 13.55; sales 200.

TOUCH OF WAR AT CASA BLANCA

Streets Are Full of Dead Moors and Moorish Quarter in Ruins.

SITUATION IS ALARMING

Moroccan Official Openly Preaching Holy War—Many Jews Have Been Massacred—Firing Continues in Streets of Casa.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Paris, August 8.—Special dispatches received here from Tangier represent the situation as being more alarming on the coast and in the interior.

Caid Sale, the administrator of customs at Rabat, is said to be openly preaching a holy war among the Musulmans, as the result of which the French consul has distributed arms to the Europeans. In addition, a fanatical priest named Maelanin, at the head of a horde of followers, is traveling through the Littoral inflaming the anti-foreign sentiment.

Reports from Fez say that the advisers of the Sultan are terrified and have not yet informed him of the gravity of the situation. Up to 6 o'clock this evening the foreign office here had no confirmation of the reported bombardment of Mazagan.

A Minaret from which a heavy, sustained fire was directed against the French consulate at Casa Blanca, was demolished by the guns of the French ships at the request of the Moroccan authorities.

The European shops were pillaged but no Europeans were killed.

The state bank agency at Casa Blanca has been robbed of about $15,000 but no details of the robbery have been made public.

Another Bombardment.

London, August 8.—A dispatch from Tangier says that the greater part of Mazagan was destroyed by the bombardment but the consulates were not injured.

It is reported the Moors attacked the Jewish quarter and killed many persons.

Streets Full of Dead.

Tangier, August 8.—The French warships yesterday landed 2,000 additional men at Casa Blanca where street fighting apparently continues, judging from the desultory firing heard day and night by those on board the ships anchored off the town. The Jawish quarter of Casa Blanca has been sacked. Many persons were massacred in the streets. The city is said to be full of dead Moors and the Moorish quarter is in ruins, having been set on fire by the shells from the guns of the cruisers.

All the stores are closed and much hunger and ditress prevails among the poor. The foreign consuls have ordered the stores to be re-opened and have established a special tariff for food supplies, designed to mitigate the sufferings of the poor.

The latest news received here from Casa Blanca says that calm and order have been established. The firing inside of Casa Blanca lasted for two full days and only came to an end yesterday morning The Kabyles have gone back out of range of the fire from the warships but they are ready to swoop down on the town at the first opportunity.

ALABAMA'S RAILROAD WAR

Southern Railway Makes Concessions. License Restored.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Montgomery, Ala., August 8.—Governor Comer and the officials of the Southern Railway reached an agreement late this afternoon and the license of the railroad in Alabama will be restored.

Beginning September 1, the railroad and its allied lines will put into effect the two and a half cent. passenger rate and the measure reducing freight rates on 110 commodities.

The agreement was not reached without concessions being made by both sides, but in the main, it is a victory for the State. The laws in question will not be put into effect permanently. The agreement declares that their operation is subject to judicial determination as to their constitutionality and reasonableness. Meanwhile the other laws enacted by the Legislaturel ast winter, affecting railroads will remain under the injunction granted by Judge Thomas G. Jones, of the Federal Court. The railroad representatives agreed that they would ask Judge Jones to modify his restraining orders issued two months ago, so as to permit of the immedite operation of the two acts in question.

The compromise affects only the Southern Railway. The other systems of the State were not parties to the conference.

ANTI-NEGRO RIOT IN ILLINOIS.

Whites Chase Blacks Out of Town. More Trouble Feared.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Hillsboro, Ills., Aug. 8.—Ill feeling toward negroes which had been brewing since last Friday night, when John T. Maddox, an aged white man was assaulted by a negro, culminated in a race riot last night and the majority of negroes were chased out of town. Negroes and white citizens fought in the streets for several hours. Finally most of the negroes fled and order was restroed. C. D. Frye, who has a contract for paving work and employed negroes, insisted that his employes be protected but to no effort. Today Frye went to St. Louis declaring he would procure other negro laborers. It is feared that if he brings back a number of negro laborers bloodshed will result, as anti-negro feeling is at high tension.

CLOSE CONTEST IN MISSISSIPPI

Williams Nominated For United States Senator By Majority of Only 648.

GOV. VARDAMAN CONCEDES IT

He Surrenders Gracefully, But Claims That Majority of People of Mississippi Endorse What He Stands for in Politics.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 8.—The Democratic State executive committee met at noon today and declared Congressman John Sharp Williams the party nominee for the United States Senate.

The canvass of the returns showed a majority of 648 votes for Williams. There will be no contest over the result.

After a short caucus between the two factions it was finally agreed to abide by semi-official returns as furnished Secretary Power from the various counties, and which show that Mr. Williams has a majority of 648 votes. The motion to declare Mr. Williams the nominee was seconded by the friends of Governor Vardaman. The committee then formally declared Mr. Williams nominated as United States Senator. This is considered the final settlement of the celebrated contest.

Governor Vardaman conceded the nomination of Mr. Williams, sending the following note to the committee:

"The Democratic party, through its executive committee has declared Mr. Williams the nominee and I accept the arbitration of that tribunal without a tinge of resentment or regret for anything done or said by my friends or me during the campaign.

"I am for the nominee and hope he will make the people of Mississippi a great U. S. Senator. I have made the campaign upon living, important and pertinent principles, and while I have lost their nomination I am thoroughly convinced that the large majority of the white Democrats of this State continue to fight for those principles as earnestly in the future as I have contended for them in the past. No man was ever blessed by more loyal and faithful friends than those who favored my fortunes in this contest. I want them to feel as I do, that we have not been defeated but that the victory is only postponed for a season. I have been a candidate several times in my life and lost the fight but never have I felt the sting of defeat and I am not defeated today."

KING OF SIAM SOFT SNAP.

Berlin People Amused at His Extravagance—His Purchases.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Berlin, Aug. 8.—King Chulalongkorn I, will leave Berlin tomorrow for Cassel, where he will be the guest of the German Emperor and Empress.

Stories of the extravagance of the Siamese King continue to excite and amuse Berlin. It is considered certain that he had bought $3,000,000 worth of diamonds and gold and silverware. Two gold services among the selections cost $800,000 each.

The King is occupying nearly the entire floor of one of the principal hotels, several apartments of which have been given up to exhibition of the jewels and precious metal work which were brought here from London, Paris and elsewhere by dealers expecting to sell most of the wares and who were rewarded for their enterprise, as the King took about half of all that was offered to him.

BAD FIRES IN BALTIMORE.

Total Damage of $290,000 Done to Big Industries.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Baltimore, Aug. 8.—Two fires today caused a total damage of $290,000 covered partly by insurance. In the first the Baltimore & Ohio grain elevator at Henrietta and Howard streets, containing 56,000 bushels of grain was burned. The loss is estimated at $200,000, of which the loss of the elevator is $150,000. The railroad company carried an insurance of $106,000 on the elevator. It will be rebuilt at once.

Another fire, which broke out in the Baltimore Transfer Company's stables, corner Front and Low streets, and communicated to the Hechinger Brothers & Co.'s chair factory, adjoining Low street, caused $90,000 damage, all but $20,000 of which was on the chair factory.

DOUBLE MURDER IN PITTSBURG

Twin Brothers Proprietors of Hotel Shot By Chicago Polish Priest.

MYSTERY AS TO CRIME

Murderer Was Accompanied By Woman Whom He Introduced as His Housekeeper—Woman Denies All Knowledge of Shooting.

(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Pittsburg, Aug. 8.—Ludwig Sczegiel, said to be an unattached Polish priest, of Chicago, walked into a southside hotel at 1111 Carson street early today and without warning, it is said, whipped out a 38-calibre revolver and opened fire upon the two proprietors, twin brothers, named Steven and Andrew Starzynski. Steven died within an hour and Andrew may not recover.

The cause of the shooting is unknown. When Sczegiel came to Pittsburg about ten days ago, he went to the hotel kept by the brothers, accompanied by a woman whom he introduced as his house keeper. They secured an apartment of two rooms. The woman, Francisca Sprock, is held as a suspicious person. She denies all knowledge of the shooting. Sczegiel, it is said, had been drinking.

Mrs. Starzynski, wife of Andrew, said that about ten minutes before the shooting had reprimanded the pair for making a disturbance. He then rejoined his brother in the room, where a few minutes later, she says the priest appeared.

Sczegiel applied yesterday to the rector of St. Adelbert's Polish Catholic Church, for employmen' as assistant, but the request wa refused.

Francisco Sprock, the pr st's female companion, stated to ay that she had only come to Pittsburg on Tuesday and was on her way to visit a brother in Cambria county. The police are of the opinion that she had no hand in the shooting.

Sczegiel was committed to jail on a charge of murder, while Francisca Sprock was held as a witness.

SHOT WIFE, CUT HIS THROAT.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 8.—T. J. Wingfield, aged 35, today shot and killed his wife, aged 25, and committed suicide beside her body in the Wingfield home in northwest Roanoke. Wingfield left a note dated today in which he said he woul kill his wife and himself, giving as his reason for the act that another man had nvaded his home. The couple quarreled on a back porch and after going into the dining room, Wingfield fired two shots through his wife's brain. He picked up the body and carried it to a bedroom, where he placed it on a bed. Standing over the body of the woman, Wingfield cut his throat, the knife with which he severed his jugular vein dropping on the cheek of the wife. The couple came here a week ago from Hagerstown, Md. Wingfield had been employed as a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

BARNEY'S SKELETON FOUND

Steve Adams Revealed Where Body of Murdered Man Was.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Denver, Col., August 8.—A special to the News from Telluride, Colo., says: What is said to be the skelton of W. J. Barney, a timber man employed on the Smuggler Union Mine, who mysteriously disappeared in the month of June, 1901, was exhumed yesterday near the Alta Mill, near Gold King basin, 12 miles from town by General Bulkeley Wells, manager of the Smuggler Union Mining Company, and others.

According to Mr. Wells' account, the remains were found in an improvised grave and its location was pointed out by Steve Adams, now in jail in Idaho awaiting a second trial on the charge of murder, when he was here in June, 1906, in the custody of Wells.

MAN DESERVES TO LIVE.

Had Leg Amputated While Pinned Under Locomotive.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, August 8.—Pinned beneath a locomotive Charles Shudley, a brakeman on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, suffered the amputation of a leg before he could be extricated from under the engine which had run over him in the railroad yards in the Bronx today. The operation was performed by an ambulance surgeon without the use of anesthetic and frequently Shudley gave suggestions to the surgeon during the operation. It is said he may recover.

RAILROAD STATION ROBBED.

Agent Tied and Gagged by Two Masked Men.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Castle, Pa., Aug. 8.—The Baltimore & Ohio station at Elwood City, 12 miles south of here, was robbed early today by two masked men who bound and gagged night agent Wilfred Francis, stole about $200 in money and escaped, locking the station doors behind them. Francis remained bound until the crew of a freight train, failing to secure a clear block, stopped for orders.

"Everybody Should Know."

says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist, 25c.

WARM WIRELETS.

Mrs. Russell Sage, of New York, has given $50,000 for a new building for the Long Island railroad branch of the Y. M. C. A. at Long Island City.

Secretary Taft has accepted an invitation to make an address on national issues in Columbus, O., August 19, before the Buckeye Republican Club.

An enormous amount of damage has been done to the grain crops, orchards and vineyards in many parts of Austria by heavy thunder storms which frequently were accompanied by devastating storms. Several villages in Eastern Bohemia have been devastated by a cyclone.

Four trainmen were killed and three seriously injured in a head-on collision between freight trains on the Western and Atlantic railroad one mile north of Dalton, Ga., yesterday. The dead are: J. L. Heggie, engineer, Tunnel Hill, Ga.; Roach, fireman; C. F. Golbert, brakeman; Tom Bartenfield, brakeman, of Dalton.

The final act of the Alabama Legislature, which adjourned yesterday, was for the erection of a monument to Jefferson Davis, first and only President of the Confederacy. It will stand within a few feet of the place where he received the oath of office and just in front of the old capitol in Montgomery where the ceremony took place.

BANK ROBBERS REPULSED.

Three Men Foiled By Citizens of an Ohio Town.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cleveland, O., Aug. 8.—By the citizens' posse that pursued them and relieved them of the burden of a wounded comrade, two of the three robbers who attmepted the robbery of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank at Strongsville early today, are believed to have made good their escape.

The third man, abandoned by his companions, was found unconscious, lying in a gully a half mile northwest of Strongsvile. The searching party of armed farmers and villagers lost track of the three robbers at the edge of the deep woods. Beating through the underbrush, they encountered a bloody trail of the wounded man who was shot at the bank building.

The posse found the wounded burglar lying face downward in the midst of a thicket. Blood was flowing from his leg and hip, and he was unconscious. He was taken to the office of a physician. His name, he said, when he revived, was F. Fogarty, but further than that he would give no information. He is apparently fifty years of age, bald-headed, with a gray mustache.

Bloodhounds are to be put on the scent of the other robbers. Fogarty has been sent to the Cleveland jail. He told the jail keeper that his name was Frank Smith and that he came from Boston.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The grievance committee of the Telegraphers' Union notified the night manager of the Western Union that unless the men who quit in the Overland Division were reinstated and not requested to work with Los Angles all men employed in the Chicago office would be called out on strike at midnight.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 8.—As the result of the telegraph operators' strike, 18 operators are at work today in the Western Union office in place of thirty or thirty-five. Additional operators are being brought in as rapidly as possible.

The company closed all its city branch offices today and took such operators as would go to the main office to work. The outside operators were all women. Several joined the strikers.

PERRY ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

Trip Will Not Be Postponed Till Next Year.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 8.—Herbert L. Bridgham, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, who is in close touch with Commander Peary's plans for his coming trip to the North Pole, said that so far as he knew there was nothing in the story put in circulation here that the trip would not be undertaken this year. The work of getting the Roosevelt ready for the Polar expedition, he said, was going on as usual. He added that Commander Peary probably would make a statement as to his plans on Sunday.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scienists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being strongly urged; careless then being fatal to longlevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine, that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50 cents.
